

Academic Cooperation Agreement

Party A: Fengkai Group Co., Limited (hereinafter referred to as "Party A")

Party B: Professor [Name] (hereinafter referred to as "Party B")

1. Purpose of Cooperation

Party A and Party B have reached a cooperation agreement. Party B will provide completed but unpublished academic manuscripts. Party A will evaluate the manuscripts and, based on their innovation and completeness, provide academic funding support to Party B. This funding will be paid after the manuscript is accepted by the target journal.

2. Content of Cooperation

Party B agrees to provide completed but unpublished academic manuscripts according to Party A's requirements. Party A will evaluate the manuscripts and provide one-time academic funding based on their innovation and completeness. The funding range is as follows (based on CAS journal ranking):

Database	Ranking	80% Timely Acceptance Price (CNY)	90% and Above Timely Acceptance Price (CNY)
SCI, SSCI, AHCI	CAS Q4	8,000	10,000
SCI, SSCI, AHCI	CAS Q3	12,000	15,000
SCI, SSCI, AHCI	CAS Q2	16,000	20,000
SCI, SSCI, AHCI	CAS Q1	24,000	30,000
Scopus	No Ranking	2,400	3,000
ESCI	No Ranking	3,200	4,000
EI	No Ranking	4,000	5,000

3. Payment of Funds

Party A will make a one-time payment of academic funding after Party B's manuscript is formally accepted by the target journal. The amount will be determined based on the journal's CAS ranking.

- Payment Range:
 - 80% Timely Acceptance: Amount specified in the table above.
 - 90% and Above Timely Acceptance: Amount specified in the table above.

Payment will be completed after Party B's manuscript is accepted by the target journal, and Party B will receive the full payment.

4. Co-Authorship

Whether Party B can be listed as a co-author will completely depend on the client's willingness. Party A will make every effort to persuade the client to allow Party B to become a co-author, but the final decision will be made by the client.

5. Manuscript Submission

The manuscript can be submitted by either Party A or Party B, and this can be negotiated. Regardless of whether Party A or Party B submits the manuscript, it must meet the requirements and the specifications of the target journal as previously agreed upon by both parties.

6. Cooperation Process

1. Manuscript Evaluation: Party A evaluates the manuscript to confirm its quality, innovation, and completeness.
2. Manuscript Submission: Party B submits the completed but unpublished manuscript to Party A, or Party A submits the manuscript based on the cooperation agreement.
3. Payment: Once the manuscript is accepted by the target journal, Party A will pay the one-time funding support.
4. Subsequent Support: Party B will assist with post-acceptance publication support work.

7. Confidentiality Clause

Both Party A and Party B agree to keep all information involved in the cooperation (including but not limited to manuscript content, cooperation details, payment amounts, etc.) confidential. No information may be disclosed to any third party without written consent from the other party.

8. Termination of Contract

If either party fails to fulfill their obligations under this contract, the other party has the right to terminate the contract. Upon termination, once the manuscript is submitted, Party A will no longer be responsible for any subsequent work.

9. Dispute Resolution

If any dispute arises during the performance of the contract, both parties should resolve it through friendly negotiation. If negotiation fails, the dispute will be submitted to the arbitration committee in the location of Party A for arbitration.
